There are NO BARRIERS
in ISLAM.

All humans belong to one brotherhood, for they are all the children of Adam. There is no superiority of a white over a black, and no distinction of an Arab over a non - Arab. Race, colour, nationality, wealth and social status are not elements that discriminate in Islam. There is no discrimination and racial barriers in Islam.

The Prophet Muhammad (upon whom be peace) said, 'You are all the children of Adam, and Adam was created from clay. No white person is superior to a black person, and no Arab is superior to a non - Arab.'

The Holy Quran has given a universal message to man, telling him that being born in a different race, tribe or country, is not meant to bring about division and discrimination. Instead, it is to bring about love and unity, and for all men to recognize each other as brothers.

indeed is the

DISCOVER THE BEAUTY

BY: MUFTI WASEEM KHAN
[MAY ALLAH PROTECT HIM]

Islam, through its teachings, places before man, the most beautiful deeds and actions, and encourages him to make his conduct and behavior very beautiful. The religion tells man to worship God in the most beautiful manner.

"Clean your heart, soul, mind and body, and humble yourself before Him, the Creator of the heavens and earth."

"Bow before Him, for He is your Lord and Master."

"And prostrate to Him with your forehead on the ground for you are His slave and servant."

The Prophet Muhammad (upon whom be peace) said, 'The servant is closest to his Lord when he prostrates before Him.'

This is indeed the beauty of true worship, where one can submit himself totally, and humble himself while bowing and prostrating to his Creator, the King of kings, the One who has no beginning and has no end.

Islam commands its followers to rid their hearts from every type of ill feelings - malice, envy, jealousy and hatred for others must not find a place in the heart of a believer.

Let the heart shine like the moon, beaming with true faith in God, and illuminated with purity.

The face is the mirror of the heart, when the heart is beautiful, the face shall also be beautiful.

The beauty and purity of the heart will then transfer to the limbs and organs of the servant of God. The result of this is that the hands will do good, the feet will walk towards good, the tongue will speak that which is good, the ears will listen to that which is good, and the entire body will be filled with goodness, experiencing joy and happiness.

With this transformation, all the vices like backbiting, lying, slandering, begin to fall from the body like the leaves of a tree in the autumn season.

The beauty of conduct is indeed the beauty of the person. Islam teaches to beautify one's conduct so that one will become a beautiful person.

Islam's beauty is also visible in the teachings of love and brotherhood that it presents to man.
